Presentation of Round one

- Competitors will enter the stage without a shirt and barefoot. No lewd acts allowed for example the moon pose.
- Under the direction of the Chief Judge, round 1 is carried out as follows:
- Competitors will enter the stage one by one and walk to the front and centre of the stage. They will perform front and back turns, with optional hand in pocket or on hip, finishing facing the judges. The competitor will then proceed to one side of the stage as directed by Chief Judge.
- Once all the competitors are on stage they are line-up into two equal-size groups and are positioned onstage so that one group is to the left of the stage; the other group is to the right of the stage. The centre portion of the stage is left open for comparison purposes.
- In numerical order, and in groups of not more than five competitors at a time, each group is directed to the centre-stage area to perform the quarter turns.
- This initial grouping of competitors, and performance of the quarter turns, is intended to assist the judges in determining which competitors take part in the comparisons.
- All individual comparisons are to be carried out centre-stage and in the order, from left to right, as directed by the Chief Judge.
- All judges are given the opportunity to submit at least one request for comparisons, which will be handed to the Chief Judge. Any additional requests are at the discretion of the Chief Judge.
- All competitors undergo at least one comparison.
- On completion of the last comparison, the entire line-up is reformed into a single line, in numerical order, before exiting the stage.

Scoring of Round One (quarter turns):

The scoring of Round 1 is carried out as follows:

- Each judge awards each competitor an individual placing, ensuring that no two or more competitors receive the same placing.
- With nine judges, two high and two low scores are discarded. The remaining scores are summed to produce a “round one sub score” and a “round 1 placing”.
- Ties in the “round one sub score” are broken using the relative placement method.
- The top 6 competitors advance to the finals (round two).

Assessing Round one (quarter turns):

Round one is assessed using the following criteria:

1. Muscularity and Body Condition

The judge should first assess the overall male athletic appearance of the physique. This assessment should begin at the head and extend downwards, taking the whole physique into account. The assessment, beginning with the general impression of the physique, should take into consideration the condition of the skin and skin tone and also the hair and facial features. Judges will be looking for fit contestants who display proper shape and symmetry combined with muscularity and overall condition.

The judges are reminded that extreme muscularity should be marked down.

2. Stage Presence and Personality

Judges are looking for the contestant with the best stage presence and poise, who can successfully convey his personality to the audience and the athlete's ability to present himself onstage with confidence.

Round two: Finals: Quarter turns

Attire for the round two is the same as round one.

Presentation of round two (quarter turns):

- Competitors will enter the stage one by one and are introduced by number, name and country, individually and in numerical order and walk to the front and centre of the stage. They will perform front and back turns, with optional pose of hand in pocket or on hip, finishing facing the judges. The competitor will then proceed to one side of the stage as directed by the Chief Judge.
- In numerical order, the six finalists will be directed to the centre-stage area to perform the quarter turns.
- The line-up will be reversed by the Chief Judge and the competitors will perform once again quarter turns.

Scoring of Round two (quarter turns):

- The scoring of round two is carried out as follows:
- Each judge awards each competitor an individual placing from 1st to 6th, ensuring that no two or more competitors receive the same placing.
